Comments, posts and messages are welcome on the Benbrook Public Library social networking sites. Online interactions will be regularly monitored and reviewed for content and relevancy. The Library respects the public’s right to express opinions. Blog comments are open to all and will be moderated by the blog’s manager. However, any post or message with any of the following will be removed, and the poster may be barred from posting any subsequent messages to Benbrook Public Library’s social networking sites:

- Spam, flaming, personal attacks and off-topic comments
- Obscene or racist content
- Personal attacks, insults, or threatening language
- Potentially libelous statements
- Plagiarized or copy-written material
- Private, personal information published without consent
- Comments unrelated to the content of the forum
- Hyperlinks to material that is not directly related to the discussion
- Commercial promotions or spam
- Organized political or religious activity
- Photos or other images that fall into any of the above categories

Benbrook Public Library reserves the right to not post and/or remove any comment at the Library’s discretion.

This policy applies to all patrons, whether registered with Benbrook Public Library or not. Benbrook Public Library regards online Social Media in the same way as its other information resources and communications. This policy is not intended to replace other Library policies but, rather, to supplement those policies. As with more traditional resources, the Library does not act in place of or in the absence of a parent. The Library is not responsible for enforcing restrictions which a parent or guardian may place on a minor’s use of this resource.

Updated 2013